A Fair Deal for Germany

Victims of the ferocious Allied bombings of Dresden, the art center, on February 13, 14, and April 17, 1945, which "held no important industries which could have bolstered the fading German war effort" (N.Y. Herald Tribune), but whose 625,000 population had just then been swelled to 1,000,000 by refugees from the Russians believing that the Four-Freedom crusaders would not bomb where bombing would only kill women and children—and art. "When the Red Army arrived on May 8 it ordered the thousands of corpses that were still being taken out of the debris to be piled up in the Altmarkt. . . The streets leading to the square were roped off and flame-throwers were turned on the bodies."

By Austin J. App, Ph.D.

(The writer, a doctor of philosophy from the Catholic University of America, was born in Milwaukee, was in the service, and has spent his life teaching English literature in Catholic colleges and universities. He is the author of "Lancelot in English Literature, Courtesy, Courtship and Marriage, History's Most Terrifying Peace, The True Concept of Literature, and many pamphlets urging the need of a just peace for the vanquished, a peace in harmony with the Atlantic Charter, and worthy of men who would call themselves 'men of good will'.)

The most momentous and tragic event of our age was the War. The American people were lend-leased into it by British and Jewish insistence that American intervention was necessary to assure a post-war world based on the Four Freedoms and a just peace based on the Atlantic Charter. If during the war, winning it was considered our first business, then, having won it, achieving what it was fought for, an Atlantic Charter peace, must be our business now. Yet that is the one business, our New Deal government, in its Inaugurals and its State of the Union messages, and its blurbs about a "Fair Deal," hypocritically evades.

The Atlantic Charter was promulgated by Roosevelt and Churchill on August 14, 1941, before we were in the war to become an ideological runway for sliding the crusade-minded American people into the war. Its second principle is that there shall be "no territorial changes that do not accord with the freely expressed wishes of the people concerned."

At Yalta, February 11, 1945, Roosevelt, Churchill, and Stalin officially violated this point and blueprinted the vilest and most tragic territorial robberies in modern times. Without consulting Poland they tore the size of Kansas away from her and gave it to our lend-lease pal, Soviet Russia, and then muttered piously that they "recognize that Poland must receive substantial accessions of territory in the North and West." That was the blueprint for robbing Germany of one-fourth of its arable land, for carving out of that most thickly populated country a territory the size of Pennsylvania. And it prepared the way for the greatest crime of the age, the expulsion from these stolen territories and total robbery of some fifteen million people, five million of whom are estimated to have died from the brutality and hardships characterizing these expulsions.

What an irony that the American people, oiled into the war on the flattery that their entrance would achieve the justest peace ever made, have instead become accomplices to literally the vastest crime and atrocity which has ever disgraced the annals of history. It is the holy duty of the American people to force their government to correct these fearful crimes as much as possible. Our government must be made to announce that its final and permanent policy is to require that all German territory taken in violation of the Atlantic Charter, from East Prussia to the Saar, must be returned, that if any lend-lease pals now want to welch on their Atlantic Charter pledge, made on January 1, 1949, then the United States will shift its moral support to the Germans, now will allocate any more credits to territorial robbers. The then Secretary of State Byrnes in his speech in Stuttgart, on September 8, 1946, made a good start, after the government's Yalta betrayal, when he said "the United States will not support encroachment on territory which is indisputably German." Unfortunately, however, by excepting the Saar for France and Koenigsberg for Russia, indisputably German territories, he failed to lift American policy to the plain of right and wrong, and kept one foot of it in the quicksand of expediency. If our government tells Russia and France that it is all right for each to rob one province, then it cannot argue on moral grounds that they should not rob two provinces. It also means that if America ever lost a war and a conqueror annexed New England, America could not consistently say, "That's wrong. Don't do that." (continued on page two)

America Whither Thou Goest?

By Frederick Chas. F. Weiss

(Graduate of University of Heidelberg, Germany, and Sorbonne, France. Author "Germanica Delenda Est?" and "Quo Vadis America".)

The two world wars were but the first flashes from the fateful thunder cloud which is passing over us. Although, three and one half years after cessation of open warfare, the form of the catastrophe has changed, the catastrophe itself has not and certainly not its tempo. We shouted "Victory", only to realize now that the great game of world politics has by no means come to an end; that with the whole of Northern Asia and Eastern Europe practically in control of the Politbureau more than ever do we have to play for the highest stake: for our very existence! When in the last suicidal struggles we betrayed and humiliated our "white" brothers and summoned the outsiders to fight for whites against whites, we saw to it that no longer they are filled with terror at the white man's power - with the result that now they have risen up and look down upon the whites as of a thing of yesterday. With horror we begin to comprehend to what extent we have underestimated the power of attraction which the Red Colossus - as their leader - has on all the colored masses of our globe.

No longer can there be any doubt as to the Politbureau's next object: After Asia comes Africa. Already we see a Red hand directing the "little war" in Palestine; throughout the Near East and even in Central and South Africa we observe the spread of mysterious underground activities by the enemy.

So, confronted with a steady process of our encirclement by the Brown-Black-Yellow forces under a Red leadership, only a fool or a coward will deny the fact that the Hour of Decision is at hand; only a fool or a coward will deny that whatever our statesmen now deem opportune to do with Germany, will shape the fate of every one of us right here in our own country. For only utter lack of respect for history can make us blind to the fact that there is - of all the others - only one "race" on the European continent which - not only on account of her geographical situation on the border of Asia - can solve with our help the decisive problem of our white world in the face of the present global bolshevist onslaught: The German Nation.

You may ask here, what good, what spiritual and material help can we still expect from a bombed-out Germany? Is it not more to our advantage to write her off entirely and to rely alone on France and England for the day when the great push from the East will materialize? You may even go further and ask: why is it that we persist in turning backward, return to that "dying hag which is Europe", when we, with all our wealth and our youth can live in peace and comfort - 4000 miles away? Well, have we not lost our hitherto most reliable and powerful ally - distance? In this age of missiles, in our fight against an IDEA, the 4000 miles between here and Central Europe mean nothing any longer.

But, only apparently so, has Western Europe lost its authoritative significance. True, at present the political power has been transferred to New York and Moscow. Put the idea of our Western civilization grew up in Europe. There are its roots, and there (and nowhere else) it will win the final victory in its history or will perish. Therefore, any decisive event in Europe will be just as decisive to us over here.

When our "Big Brains" in Washington selected the Latin countries of Western Europe and England to become our spearhead against the daily growing pressure from the East, they - apparently - hoped to find another Charles Martel among them. But,

The pathetic lack of ethical perceptions keeps traducing our policies towards Germany. This moral blindness caused General Clay on January 10 blunderingly to blame German groups for "demanding that Germany be given back her eastern territory ceded to Poland." Yet Byrnes had said the Germany's eastern provinces had not been ceded to Poland but were merely put "under the administration of the Polish state." Now General Clay instead of praising these German groups for supporting America's professed intention of protecting "indisputably German" territory, blames them for it and talks as if our New Dealers, even in advance of the peace treaty, had sold these German territories down the river. A square deal for Germany means that our government demand full integrity of German boundaries, with no nonsense from either France or Russia or Poland. They are all pledged to the Atlantic Charter—it is America's business to hold them to it—or tell them in a choice between the robbing and the robbed it must side with the robbed.

Its second duty is to minimize the awful calamity of the fifteen million East and Sudeten and Balkan Germans expelled from their homes and totally robbed, again with the complicity of our New Deal Marxist Controlled government. At Potsdam President Truman, along with Stalin and Attlee, on July 17, 1945, sanctioned the most inhuman political measure next to genocide ever invented by human beastliness, when he declared that "the transfer to Germany of German populations or elements thereof, remaining in Poland, Czechoslovakia, and Hungary, will have to be undertaken." According to this measure, Hitler would have been justified if he had driven all Jews out of Germany; and by virtue of it, Morgenthauistic Jews could not consistently condemn as immoral any future expulsion of Jews from any country. This Potsdam article marks the moral low of this nation in its 150 years of history.

But recognizing this moral low does not help the ten million robbed expellees roaming helplessly about in bombed-out Germany, now reduced to a country half the size of Texas with seventy million people against Texas's seven million. Five million of the refugees, exposed to rape, abuse, and starvation, are estimated to have died along the way—that is, six times as many people as there were Jews in Germany when Hitler took over. A fair deal for Germany means that our government contritely but determinedly repudiates expulsion as a political measure, that it points to the Atlantic Charter signed by all the United Nations as more binding than the Potsdam agreement signed by only three, and demand before the whole world that the still-living German expellees be restored to their provinces, homes, and belongings in Eastern Germany, the Sudetenland, and the Balkans. Since in the Potsdam agreement America shares responsibility for creating the refugee problem, whereas it is not responsible for the so-called DP problem, America must, until it has diplomatically achieved the return of the expellees, consider them as her charge, give them not less, but more immigration facilities than the DPs. America must, like a thief trying to make restitution for money stolen and largely spent, heroically and humbly aid the expellees in every possible way.

The third plank in a fair deal for Germany is the immediate and sincere halting of all dismantlings. On April 30, 1947, the Christian Century, asking editorially, "Is Vengeance Still Our Purpose?" wrote, "Herbert Hoover's blast against the folly of the policy regarding fertilizer factories we are pursuing in Germany should arouse the indignation of all men with common sense. We have deprived Germany of a quarter of its arable land, jammed the truncated remainder with 15,000,000 refugees and expellees, and now we are dismantling the plants. . . ." In October, 1947, almost three years after the war, our government, while telling the American people to send five billion a year to Europe to revive production, collaborated with the British and French in listing 918 German plants for destruction, only 338 of which were listed as war plants. Since then many have been destroyed. Newsweek, December 6, 1948, describes a square where once the Schiess machine-tool plant had stood. A guide said, "It once had 3,000 employees. They even dismantled the workers' swimming pool."

Henry Hazlitt, in Newsweek, February 23, 1948, wrote, "It is senseless to defend this preposterous policy of dismantling by an appeal to the Potsdam Agreement. . . . Even under that agreement, in fact, all dismantlings and removals were to be completed by Feb. 2 of this year (1948). It is even more senseless to argue that we must continue this idiocy because Britain and France insist on it. It is we, we in America, who are paying the bill. . . . It is we who are being asked to pour $17,000,000 more of the American taxpayer's money into Europe, largely to make up the consequences of this destruction. . . ." Yet, now a year later, after we have already poured a good portion of these billions into Europe, we are still destroying German factories. Truly, whom the gods would destroy, they throw into the hands of the eye-for-an-eye boys! Now, almost four years after the war, our European Recovery Administrator Paul Hoffman, "relying on a report by American businessmen, has urged halting the dismantling of about 167 German plants. . . . All the old Morgenthau-minded elements will undoubtedly try to put pressure on Acheson to set aside the Hoffman recommendation." So reports Frank C. Hanighen in Human Events, January 19, 1949. He continues, "Already supporters of the Morgenthau Plan in the press have tried to label the Hoffman proposal 'partisan'."

It is a must for the American people on this one point to defeat the Morgenthauists. They must so overwhelm Acheson with demands that the dismantlings be stopped, that the whole brood of Morgenthauists cannot bribe or browbeat him into continuing them. For the government to tell the people of Berlin that it is sincerely trying to help and protect the German people against the Soviets while persisting in this enormous stupidity and crime of destroying valuable productive plants is almost as criminal for its hypocrisy as the dismantlings themselves are. Bishop Wilhelm Berning of Osnabrueck in his New Year sermon asked, "Why, then, the dismantling of industrial plants. . . ? This causes mass unemployment, unrest and bitterness, and creates doubt whether the victor powers really care to see our people have peace in life" (NC, Frankfurt, Jan. 20, 1949). Surely, surely, what America and the world needs is a fair deal for Germany, and an end of its Morgenthauism here at home.

"Religion is the enemy of Communism. We must do our utmost to emphasize that religious survivals in our country play a reactionary, harmful role. They are hostile to that great cause toward which the toilers are laboring under the leadership of the Communist Party." — Soviet Byelorussian, official organ of the Byelorussian Republic, Sept. 27, 1948.

Wake Up Americans!

Cunning Marxists in the Soviet Union, Poland, London, Paris and mainly New York, the Invisible Government, with perfect coordination, tricked and propagandized Christians to slaughter each other in the war to crush Germany which was the only country in Europe which fully understood the menace of Communism and the only country strong enough to keep the Red Army, backing atheistic Communism, bottled up in Russia. Because of stupidity Americans did not realize that the concentration camps in Germany were filled almost exclusively with the millions of Marxists who infiltrated from Russia and Poland to overpower Germany at the critical time. For this stupidity, the United States now occupies the same position Germany did. Our country is swarming with Marxists dupes and the only way we can present a united American Front to the Soviet Union and its atheistic program is to have every adult register and fine-comb the United States placing all disloyal and illegal entries behind barb wire fences. Attorney General Tom Clark has admitted that his Marxist dominated Department of Justice has allowed an average of 2000 illegal entries per day for years. Now that all European countries have either succumbed or can be taken over at Stalin's pleasure, and China has gone to the Marxists, the United States is next in line. To those few who have paid the price in study so as to be informed, it is plain that the Marxist plan in the United States is two-thirds completed. These same scheming Marxists who engineered us into the recent war are now behind the scenes setting the stage for a war with the Soviet Union, knowing that approximately 35,000,000 people in the United States can be fooled into supporting a revolt and enabling Communism to replace Americanism. The simple Americans who think we have the Atomic Bomb should realize that the Marxists have it. Four of the five members of the

America Whither Thou Goest?

What real Frenchman of today cares any longer for world politics or likes to struggle for the vital aims of our Western World? He desires nothing more than the peace of a people that has become weary and unfruitful and finds his happiness in a rentier ideal: a little money, a bottle of wine, and "amour". So, why should he fight the "other fellow's" fight?

Or, have our statesmen set their hope on England, the former undisputed mistress of the seas, whose present ministers were only too eager to preside over the by now accomplished liquidation of the Empire? Upon "Old England", which now has ceased strategically to be an island, and which no longer is healthy enough - spiritually and racially - to fight along in this terrible crisis with the necessary enthusiasm and confidence? Upon a formerly proud and mighty England, now the recipient of dole handed out to her by an international high finance, her real master?

These are the "Powers" (not to speak about the other beneficiaries of our Marshal Plan), upon which we have set our only hope in Europe for protection against the Red Flood; against a new Genghis Khan, who, with an extremity of military and political effort and with all the vehemence of destiny follows his mission as an arch-expansionist; against an enemy who knows only too well that in the present struggle between East and West there can only be one question at issue; who is to govern the whole?!

And so the great historical question is whether or not we and our tottering allies of Western Europe are strong enough to prevent the fall of the white world without mobilizing the spiritual and material power of the German people; and what resources can Germany as of today muster?

Very few, it would seem, were we to believe the comments of our guided and controlled Press and Radio. But history tells us differently!

Space does not permit here to speak in detail about the innumerable heroic deeds in Germany's past, when the strong, unbending "I" of her people again and again stood up against the impersonal Asiatic collectivism at our Eastern frontier. But this is not necessary. Present historic events in Central Europe prove that - as in the past - there is still left in the German people enough of that blood, which gave them the foundation of every kind of intellectual superiority over her adversaries from the East.

Contrary to a poisoning Marxist propaganda which up till now has tried its utmost to rock us into the sleep of oblivion by reasons of its miraculous doctrines of a guaranteed "World Peace" under the regiment, imposed by a supernational Government, we now wake up only to see that we have to fight - if we want to survive. When formerly they told us that the "Anti Komintern Pact" was a "criminal conspiracy" - we now have to concede that it was the unique spiritual power of the German People which prevented a Red Master from taking us over, lock, stock and barrel, at a time when our international Intelligentsia began to glorify the peace-loving "20th Century Red Democrats."

In this eleventh hour of the monstrous Drama, when we are threatened by all the masses of the globe under a Red leadership; when we have to fight against an IDEAWHOLE real meaning for the mysterious Oriental Soul we are even not able to comprehend, describe or define; in this eleventh hour, I ask, can we afford to discard the spiritual support of our key-nation on the border of Asia which up to this day - despite the terrible losses in two World Wars - has remained numerically the largest "unit of the soul" among all other "white" nations - including our own? After having almost bled to death in long years of warfare; after having experienced a mass bombing, mass looting, mass raping and debauching of their women; after deportation of millions of her sons - even daughters - to Siberia; after having been exposed to a planned attempt to bastardize their good blood with that of our "allies" from the jungles; after having withstood the economic cannibalism of our Morgenthau Marxist's - what other people, I ask, would have left a drop of good blood to give them the physical and intellectual high standard that the average German of today is able to muster in his spiritual fight against Communism?

When we came over under the pretext to alter and improve, yet sought only to destroy; when we began with our enlightening-process by conniving at the shady black market business of our "special agents"; when we sent over our famous "Big Four" Hunger, Cold, Death, Despair - and taught them "Democracy"; how would our masses have reacted against their usurper?

When we came over to liberate them from a totalitarian "yoke" only to let our "Brothers from the Asiatic steppes" entrench and encamp themselves on the mountain of their misery and despair; when we hung them up - and the Reds hung them on to their job; when we blew them up and the Reds blew them on - their high furnaces, that is; when we stole their patents and the Reds forced them to work their inventions (because they could not read the patent scripts anyhow); when the Reds compressed them into one front and we split them up into some dozens of "democratic" parties; when the Reds promised them ONE Reich and we promised them a thousand little fatherlands - who was to doubt that in every other "white" soul the spiritual substance of resistance against the Red Manifesto would have consumed itself long ago? When we, on the other hand, 4000 miles away, in our immensely wide and rich country, which was not even singed by the horrors of war have our hands full to prevent the Marxist invisible government from achieving its final success: lest our misguided masses crash everything that centuries had gone to build up!

And so, our enlightening process goes on and on over there in Germany. With the help of some of their degenerate elements, their spiritual failures or inferiors, we promise them "PEACE". We try to condition them for the day when, again, they will have to sign on the dotted line. Naturally, they will have - above all - to sign a confession: that they have committed (all of them!) the "supreme crime", the waging of aggressive war.

And so we, the richest nation on earth, will explain to those who for 700 long years had been the beggars among our brothers in Europe - that just as over here our law in majestic equality forbids the rich no less than the poor to steal bread.. so our law over there, again in majestic equality, forbids to us no less than to them to resort to war - even if driven by sheer hunger! (with the exception of some little "holy" wars in Palestine, of course). We will explain that from now on the 75 millions of them will have to "live" in a territory about half the size of that of California (...and may nature take its course!); that no free thinking can be allowed henceforth and that no longer we need the spiritual help of their Plancks, Bunsens, and Liebig's; that if need be, we will draw upon the inhabitants of "undeveloped areas" for some new Diesels, Kochs or Bayers; that they have to do without machines or ships (because we need them to develop the land of the Hottentots) and that in their future land of poets and musicians they do not need them anyhow!

And so a "Peace Treaty" will be imposed by us and a cruel external law enforced on our brother nation; a law containing a political tendency depending not upon what the average American thinks, but upon what is practically intended by a small clique among us, which in fact represents real power behind our elected government.... commands our legislation; a law, which will mean - if enforced - the complete ultimate annihilation of the German people. And should this happen, our own abdication from history as free men would become a certainty! You may doubt this certainty. But look "at the record" of those who up to this very day insisted on wiping Germany off the map; look at their well planned, well screened offensive against us all and you will no longer be in doubt as to their ultimate objective: When they began, back in 1933, to make a profound impact upon our liberal citizenry and influenced us to believe that the Soviet Union was the destined savior of Western democracy; when our former instinctive fear was transmitted overnight into indiscriminate sympathy with the Kremlin; When they taught us that communism was "Twentieth Century Americanism"; when they shouted at us about the necessity of an alliance with USSR ... to make the world safe for the "Four Freedoms"; when they shouted at us about Stalins "moral rights" to steal our secret weapons; when they shouted so long, until the suicidal war between whites was on and until the white dam across Europe was blown up; until we stand alone now facing the Red Colossus ... with a class war in our midst! And to-day, after a cruel realization that they have overplayed their hand; that in the lands of their 'Red Democrats' a true Asiatic form of Bolshevism has set in (which wears the Marxian face only for the "benefit" of the outside world). . they begin to shout at us that - after all - they made a mistake in that Stalin was actually Hitler redivivus, a Red Fascist!!

Slowly, but surely, we see through this international clique, through the real victors of the two world wars. For danger is knocking at our door and makes us wake up. We begin to comprehend that these One-World-Apostles, who would have us without country, religion, flag or class, and who sneer at the value of our Western Institutions, know only too well that, as long as they do not succeed in tearing down the last remnant of the white wall across Europe, so long as there are left among the German people individuals with an iron self-discipline, with an elemental super-personal force, - their leveling-in-process into a stateless world cannot be accomplished. That is the real reason for their deliberately dry insistence on Germany's complete annihilation as a power.

And that is the real reason why they will shout now so long until World War III is on; until our "A"-bombs will fall and finish off what little is left of ... CENTRAL EUROPE .. This being so, shall we now take the necessary steps to avert disaster? Or shall we continue to listen to our Morgenthau-Catos and go on with our stupidity and try to enforce a treaty which will be a thousand times worse in its ultimate effect upon our future than the one we imposed at Versailles?

Shall we wait any longer until we come to our senses? Yet, time runs short! To maintain the heroic posture on end is beyond the power of any people; even of the German people! The Prussian-German people have had four great moments (1813, 1870, 1914, 1949), and that is more than any others ever had throughout history! And it is up to us alone now to decide whether we will do the necessary and mobilize for our own sake this unique spiritual power on our border of Asia - or whether we will go under as free men. For the unity of resolve that has formed itself among the 14 members of the Politbureau will then have its way: The mobilization of the German MIND to guide the Asiatic HAND in the struggle to death against ourselves! Ever since the times of Peter the Great, they knew in Moscow that only the Western mind and not the Russian hand can hold together in the center of the artificial and complicated realm of machine the managers and organizers of their untold millions of slave workers. They know in Moscow better than in Washington that to preserve their ever endangered industrial potentiality one figure is more important to them than even all the energy of their master men: the German engineer, the German scientist. They are well aware of the fact that in our age of rapidly changing methods of warfare their political achievement cannot be secured in the long run without the scientific foundation for procuring a tremendous increase in the power of the individual, which again can only be obtained by equipping him with the most improved machinery of war.

And so, while we look forward to the day when we will crown our "success" with the imposition of another "PEACE of WESTPHALIA" upon the German masses, in Moscow they will look forward to the day when we will finally have to give up our famous "Give and Take Policy", a policy by which the Russians always give and we always take - a beating; they will look forward to the day when we, the "decrepit dupes of the West", can no longer help but to understand the hypocrisy of the Kremlin's blabbing about "peace" and when finally it will become clear to us that (in the words of their Dimitrioff) ... "the preservation of peace only furthers the growth of the forces of the proletariat ... that it cracks the foundation of the capitalistic structure ... that it hastens the victory of communism ..."; they will look forward in Moscow to the day when finally an eruption in us - which is bound to come - will release the deepest instinct in our blood from the load of an unbearable, because eternal, threat from the East: to OUR day, when no longer we will try to parry in vain the stabs from behind an impenetrable Iron Curtain. And then they will go over the record of the Nobel Prize Winners in the era before Hitler and will look at Germany's stupendous ERSATZ-rearmament achievements (1933-1939).

And then, COMMON SENSE will teach them the lesson: that without the unique scientific and technical thought of the German mind, they may well despair of the future. For the Westerner it is, who is the machine's master and destiny. And machines will dominate the earth.

This is the spiritual side of the German question (as far as it concerns our immediate future; about the material side I shall write some other time.

I have attempted here to show that our betrayal of the German People is tantamount to the betrayal by a minority group or by the inferior part of our people, of that strong, healthy, part, which twice in a generation was called upon to rise up in the belief that it could and would have a future as free, white, men; of that racially best element of ours which in moral self-discipline fought for the preservation of our 'American Way of Life' ... only to realize now - after a cruel awakening - that the Machiavellian intelligence of our World Citizens has well understood to use their world-political inexperience as a tool; when our Marxist Intelligentsia made them blow up the White Dam (Germany) in Central Europe and, thus, released a Red Flood which finally is bound to submerge us all. That is, if the store of excellent blood, that still there lies in a great part of the German people, can no longer be roused and spiritualized to meet the stupendous challenge of our Marxist One-World-Apostles.

THAT IS THE QUESTION OF TO-DAY.

Atomic Energy Commission are Marxists. All Marxists and Marxist publications used every means to have the bomb turned over to this committee. The Chairman, David E. Lilienthal, is a smooth-talking Red but the real leader is Lewis L. Strauss of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, Jewish International Bankers, whose President, Jacob Schiff financed the Communist revolution in Russia in 1917. In addition to Lilienthal and Strauss Robert F. Bacher and Wm. W. Waymack are the other two Marxists on this Committee. BRITISH OFFICER SPEAKS

Major-General J. F. C. Fuller, a British soldier and student of warfare, in his book just published "The Second World War", exposes the stupidity in dealing with Germany.

Roosevelt's "unconditional surrender" demand, says this expert, only prolonged the war. It offered the Germans no hope for a reasonable peace, and spurred them to fight on to the death.

Churchill's bombing of civilian areas in German cities is regarded by Fuller as having been a colossal mistake. For one thing, he offers figures to show that this destructions did not cut down German military production seriously. Worse, he says, "the ruined cities of Germany will stand as monuments to the barbarism of their conquerors . . . the ruins will remain to beckon generation after generation of Germans to revenge."

"It is the purpose of the Communists in America to develop a revolutionary American political program and party, to set its feet firmly on the Marxian-Leninist path, and to lay the foundation for a revolutionary struggle that is now gradually mobilizing, the . . . masses and that will one day put 'finish' to bankrupt American capitalism and establish a Soviet America." Prominent Officials Welcome Communist Terrorist

The NEW YORK TIMES of November 23, 1948 carried a full page ad welcoming Menachem Beigin, Chief of Irgun, the terrorist organization which bragged they set bombs in English government buildings in Palestine killing many. This same page ad appeared in many large cities. This welcome was climaxed by a $50.00 a plate banquet at the Waldorf Astoria and galareception at the City Hall where Mayor O'Dwyer affiliated. All this to a notorious Communist who was a leader in the effort to overthrow Germany. Among the 652 names of prominent men listed in this ad were 93 Rabbis, 72 Congressmen, 11 Senators, 11 Governors, 9 Mayors. Some prominent Catholics such as James Farley and Mayor James Curley of Boston were also duped.

Below we publish an article from "America, A Catholic Review of the Week" January 1, 1949.

So complete was the collapse of the propaganda blow-up afforded to Menachem Beigin, former leader of the terrorist Irgun Zvai Leumi in Palestine, at the time of his arrival in New York last November, that little more might need to be said about this fantastic incident. Nevertheless, an article that appeared in the June 19, 1948 issue of the "Neue Volkszeitung", social-democratic German-language newspaper in New York City, throws an interesting light on the personality that hundreds of prominent persons in American life were asked to receive with welcoming arms. The information was furnished to the "Neue-Volkszeitung" by Gerhart H. Seger, founder and editor of the "Neue Volkszeitung", a former member of the German Reichstag, and, after 1933, a political refugee because of his distinguished labor leadership in Weimar Germany. According to Mr. Seger, Max Wullschlegel, the political editor of the Basle (Switzerland) "Arbeiter-Zeitung" ("Worker's Journal") found that the commanding officer of the Irgun was a German Communist, Freymann by name, who as chief of the Irgun used the Hebrew pseudonym Menachem Beigin. He is described by this report as having received military training in Russia and as having later played an important part in the Spanish Civil War. From Spain, he is said to have moved the field of his activity to the Red Army in China, and, after having accumulated sufficient experience in two civil wars, to have traveled to Palestine and taken over the direction of the Irgun organization. It would have been still more disturbing for the members of the "Menachem Beigin Reception Committee" if they had learned that the underground general they were asked to sponsor was reputedly a Russian-trained German Communist. Mr. Beigin left for Palestine December 21.
